

Robert Goreta: LIV DELICIOUS

Liv Delicious, every day,
you were born to live in joy,
to make your life one big dream,
to be a member of a winner team.

You only live once,
so now you have
the greatest chance,
for a new romance.

Never, never give up,
always look on the bright side.
Never, never give up,
always give yourself a big smile.

You only live once,
so now you have
the greatest chance,
for your soul to dance.

Liv Delicious, every day,
you were born to live in joy,
to make your life one big dream,
to be a member of a winner team.

»Movement never lies. It is a barometer telling the state of the soul's weather to all who can read it.«
